New Brunswick Moves to Level 3, effective midnight Jan. 14, 2022

New Brunswick is moving to Level 3 of the COVID-19 winter plan, the most restrictive level, effective Friday, Jan. 14 at 11:59 p.m.

Premier Blaine Higgs made the announcement at a COVID briefing Thursday afternoon, Jan. 13, citing a record-high 104 hospitalizations and rising cases. This decision is to help protect the health care system and those who work in it. The lockdown will last until Jan. 30 at 11:59 p.m.

"Think of it as short-term pain for long-term gain," he said.

Under Level 3, faith services are allowed only outdoors or virtually.

Sadly, the Anglican Parish of Woodstock will be pivoting to on-line services only, beginning Jan. 16 until Jan. 30, 2022. The services will be livestreamed to Facebook at 10:30 am each Sunday and available anytime afterwards for viewing. We hope to resume in-person worship beginning Feb. 6, 2022.

We have been asked by Archbishop David Edwards to please continue to pray for each other, our health care system and personnel, and all those affected by this pandemic.

Thank you for your cooperation and patience during this fluid, challenging time. God bless you for your faithfulness.

Guidance on Spiritual Communion

(from the Church of England, authorized by Archbishop David Edwards)

The term ‘Spiritual Communion’ has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some serious reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. This period of lockdown, during Level 3 of our province’s winter plan, is one such time. Spiritual Communion offers Christians an opportunity to give thanks for our communion with Jesus when we would ordinarily be present at the Eucharist.

The Church is not defined by the walls of a building but by the Body of Christ of which we are members. In making our communion spiritually, we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, ‘I am the Bread of Life’.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

We pray together:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Jesus said, ‘I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.’ John 6.35

Lord Jesus Christ, we give thanks for your saving death and resurrection, and we ask You to be with you now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given us, for all the pains and insults you have borne for us. Since we cannot now receive you sacramentally, We ask you to come spiritually into our hearts. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

Adapted from the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Lord, in these days of mercy, make us quiet and prayerful. in these days of challenge, make us stronger in you. in these days of emptiness, take possession of us. in these days of waiting, open our hearts to the mystery of your cross. Amen.

Prayer by Angela Ashwin

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you most humble and hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving kindness. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And give us, we pray, such a sense of all your mercies that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth your praise, not only with our lips but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Dr Heather Dow in Syria for 2 months

Dr. Heather Dow has done humanitarian trips to Haiti in the past and also has gone to Syria before. The following is written by Dr Dow to Joy, her sister-in-law, to explain where she is going:

The refugee camp is located in NE Syria near a small city Al-Hasakah. It houses about 65,000 refugees who are mostly Iraqi and Syrian women and children. In a place intended for 20,000, living conditions are pretty crowded . It is basically a massive tent city.

Cadus, a small grassroots medical volunteer organization operates one of the two field hospitals (Kurdish Red Crescent runs the other). Conditions in the 30-bed hospital are quite rustic by our standards here.

One big concern, especially is to provide the best care possible under the circumstances, including basic bloodwork.

A crucial piece of equipment that could fill that gap is a blood gas analyzer, especially for monitoring critically ill patients with Covid pneumonia or those children with valvular heart disease who are waiting for their surgery.

She is raising money to try to get a blood machine for them, if we are interested in a donation, total cost is about $1500.00 for a refurbished one.

Dr Dow left on Jan. 2, 2022, and has crossed the border to Syria. Please keep her in your thoughts and pray for her safe return.

Changes in Covid-19 Restrictions

New Brunswick is moving to Level 3 of the COVID-19 winter plan, the most restrictive level, effective Friday, Jan. 14 at 11:59 p.m.

Premier Blaine Higgs made the announcement at a COVID briefing Thursday afternoon, Jan. 13, citing a record-high 104 hospitalizations and rising cases. This decision is to help protect the health care system and those who work in it.

The lockdown will last until Jan. 30 at 11:59 p.m.

"Think of it as short-term pain for long-term gain," he said.

Under Level 3, social gatherings are limited to single household bubbles; no public gatherings are permitted; restaurants are takeout only; gyms, salons and entertainment centres are closed, and faith services are allowed only outdoors or virtually.

But non-essential retail will remain at Level 2 instead of being reduced to contactless pickup or delivery only.

Sadly, our Parish will be pivoting to on-line services only, beginning Jan. 16 until Jan. 30, 2022. The services will be livestreamed to Facebook at 10:30 am each Sunday and available anytime afterwards for viewing. We hope to resume in-person worship beginning Feb. 6, 2022.

Your continued cooperation in following the protocols during this fluid and challenging time is appreciated.

We have been asked by Archbishop David Edwards to please continue to pray for each other, our health care system and personnel, and all those affected by this pandemic.

God bless you for your faithfulness.
