New Brunswick Moved to Level 3,

New Brunswick moved to Level 3 of the COVID-19 winter plan, the most restrictive level, effective Friday, Jan. 14 at 11:59 p.m. This decision is to help protect the health care system and those who work in it. The lockdown will last until Jan. 30 at 11:59 p.m. Under Level 3, faith services are allowed only outdoors or virtually.

The Anglican Parish of Woodstock will be providing on-line services only, for Jan. 23 & Jan. 30, 2022. The service for Jan. 23 will be livestreamed to Facebook at 10:30 am and available anytime afterwards for viewing. The service for Jan. 30 will be pre-recorded and available for viewing anytime after 9 am that day. We hope to resume in-person worship beginning Feb. 6, 2022.

We have been asked by Archbishop David Edwards to please continue to pray for each other, our health care system and personnel, and all those affected by this pandemic. Thank you for your cooperation and patience during this fluid, challenging time. God bless you for your faithfulness.
